

10. A flat self-adhering plaster having a multi-layer construction and reduced cold flow, comprised of a layer of adhesive adapted to attach to skin and comprising a core of flowable adhesive comprised of a polymer or a mixture of polymers, and a ring of adhesive being an adhesive having reduced flowability to that of the core, wherein said ring of adhesive is comprised of a different polymer or different mixture of polymers from that of said core, and wherein said ring surrounds said core. --

C 2
Conceded